A Morning Prayer for the Use of the Masters or Mistresses and Scholars.

Praised be the Lord from the rising up of the Sun, to the going down of the same. Thou art our God, and we will Praise thee ; Thou art our God, and we will Thank thee.

Thou hast made us after thine own Image ; thou daily preservest and providest for us : Thou hast redeemed us by the precious Blood of thy dear Son ; thou hast given us thy holy Word for our Direction, and promis'd thy holy Spirit for our Assistance ; thou hast raised up to us Friends and Benefactors, B who

who have taken Care of our Education and Instruction ; thou hast brought us together again this Morning, to teach and to learn that which may be profitable to us.

For these and all thy Favours, Spiritual and Temporal, our Souls do Bless and Magnify thy Holy Name, humbly beseeching thee to accept this our Morning Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord.

And do thou, O Lord, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this Day, defend us in the same by thy mighty Power, and grant that this Day we fall into no Sin, neither run into any kind of Danger ; but that all our Doings may be ordered by thy Governance, to do always that which is righteous in thy Sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Particularly we beg thy Blessing upon our present Undertaking. Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious Favour, and further us with thy continual Help, that in these and all our Works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy Mercy obtain obtain everlasting Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We humbly acknowledge, O Lord, the great Imperfection and Disorder both of our Minds and of our Lives, that we are unable to help our selves, and unworthy of thy Assistance : But we beseech Thee, through the Merits of our Blessed Redeemer, to pardon our Offences, to enlighten our Understandings, to strengthen our Memories, to sanctify our Hearts, and to guide our Lives. Help us, we pray Thee, to learn and to practise those things which are good, that we may become serious Christians, and useful in the World ; to the Glory of thy great Name, the Satisfaction of those who have so kindly provided for our Souls and Bodies, and our own present and future Well-being.

Bless and defend, we beseech Thee, from all their Enemies, our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, their Royal Highnesses Frederick Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, the Duke, the Princesses, the Issue of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family. Let thy Blessings be also bestow'd upon all those in Authority under his Majesty in Church and State ; as also upon all our Friends and Benefactors, particularly those who are concerned in the Care of this School. Prosper thou the Work of their hands: O Lord, prosper thou their handy-work.

These Prayers, both for them and ourselves, we humbly offer up in the Name of thy Son Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, concluding in his most perfect Form of Words.

Our Father, &c.

An Evening Prayer for the Master or Mistress and Scholars.

A Ccept, we beseech thee, O Lord, our Evening Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving for all thy Goodness and Loving-kindness to us; particularly for the Blessings of this Day, for thy gracious Protection and Preservation, for the Opportunities we have enjoy'd for the Instruction and Improvement of our Minds, for all the Comforts of this Life, and the Hope of Life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Redeemer.

We humbly acknowledge, O Lord, that we are altogether unworthy of the least

least of all thy Favours; that we continually fall short of our Duty, and have too often transgress'd thy Holy Laws.

Forgive, most merciful Father, we humbly pray thee, all the Errors and Transgressions, which thou hast beheld in us the Day past, and help us to express our unfeigned Sorrow for what has been amiss, by our Care to amend it.

What we know not, do thou teach us; instruct us in all the Particulars of our Duty, both towards thee, and towards Men; and give us Grace always to do those things which are good and well-pleasing in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Whatsoever good Instructions have been here given this Day, grant that they may be carefully remembred, and duly followed; and whatsoever good Desires thou hast put into any of our Hearts, grant that by the assistance of thy Grace they may be brought to good Effect, that thy Name may have the Honour, and we, with those who are assistant to us in this Work of our Instruction, may have comfort at the Day of Account, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

30 Prayers for Charity-Schools.

Lighten our Darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great Mercy defend us from all Perils and Dangers of this Night ; continue to us the Blessings which we enjoy, and help us to testify our Thankfulness for them, by a due use and improvement of them.

Bless and defend, we beseech thee, from all their Enemies, Our most gracious Sovereign Lord King GEORGE, their Royal Highnesses Frederick Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, the Duke, the Princesses, the Issue of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family. Bless also all those in Authority in Church and State, together with all our Friends and Benefactors, particularly those who are concerned in the Care of this School, for whom we are bound in especial manner to pray. Bless this and all other Schools for Religious and truly Christian Education. And direct and prosper all pious Endeavours for the Propagation of thy Gospel in the World.

These Praises and Prayers, we humbly offer up to thy divine Majesty, thro' the Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord ; in whose holy Name and Words, we sum up all our Desires.

Our Father, &c.

A Morning Prayer, to be used daily by every Child at Home.

GLORY be to thee, O Lord, who hast preserved me from the Perils of the Night past, who hast refreshed me with Sleep, and raised me up again to praise thy holy Name.

I humbly worship thee, O God my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ my Redeemer, and I do again devote myself to thee, desiring to serve thee faithfully this, and all the Days of my Life.

I was made thy Child, and the Disciple of thy Son Jesus, by Baptism, and then received the Promise of thy Holy Spirit. Let that good Spirit thoroughly cleanse me from all the Corruption of my Nature.

Help me to remember thee, my Creator, in the Days of my Youth.

Preserve me from those Errors and Follies, to which the Frailty of my Age does most expose me, and keep me Innocent from every great Offence.

Deliver me from the Vanity of mine own Heart, and from the Temptations of evil Company.
